

Penn South Federal Credit Union Board of directors

Matthew Barile

Matthew has been a board member for Penn South Credit Union since 1996, serving as its President through March of 2018. In addition to currently serving as a Vice President at PSFCU, Matthew is also on the board of Mutual Redevelopment Houses. Matthew brings to PSFCU a professional background in finance, currently serving as a financial advisor managing over $100 million in assets for over 300 clients. Matthew majored in political science and minored in economics at Northeastern University. Mr. Barile is very proud of his many years of work with the Credit union. Serving on the CU Board allows him to give back to the community in a very meaningful way by helping people to afford moving into Penn South.

Marc Boddewyn

As board member for the last several years, Marc bring to PSFCU a background as a senior level project manager in the construction industry. Marc received a Bachelor's of Landscape Architecture from the College of Environmental Science & Forestry, and later received a Master's of Public Administration from Columbia University's School of International & Public Affairs.

Philip DePalma

A current board member and recently elected Treasurer of PSFCU, Philip has been with Penn South Credit Union since 2012, serving in various roles including Chairman of the Supervisory Committee. Philip is graduate of Pace University with a degree in Accounting. Philip brings to PSFCU an extensive background in Auditing and Finance from the union world.

Brian Hammerstein

Brian Hammerstein is a long-standing member of the PSFCU Board of Directors, and since 2018 has served as its Information Security Officer. Brian is also a member of the Board of Directors for Mutual Redevelopment Houses, the Credit Union's sponsor. Brian brings to PSFCU an educational background in Computer Science from Yale University.

Brendan Keany

Mr. Keany has served on the PSFCU Board of Directors for almost 5 years. In addition to his service to the credit union, Brendan has dedicated himself to the Penn South Cooperative housing corporation for 34 years in various capacities, most recently as its General Manager. He holds numerous certifications in Apartment management and is a member of an active member of the National Association of Housing Cooperatives. Brendan states that it's been gratifying working with the PSFCU board to resolve the challenges of a small to medium sized credit union and helping to provide services that are both competitive and a benefit to our membership.

Jane F. Knox

Jane has since served on the PSFCU board of directors for the past several years and has been an employee of the credit union in various capacities since 2012. Jane has been a resident of Penn South since 2009 and brings to the Credit Union a B.A. in Psychology from Hunter College. She is known at the credit union for her attention to detail as well as being a quick-thinking problem solver with a reputation for going above and beyond to serve our clients.

Walter Mankoff

Walter has been a board member for over 15 years, and has served in past roles as chair of the Credit Union's Supervisory Committee. Walter brings to PSFCU a 45-year background in Labor, serving as an expert in labor economics, social insurance, and corporate finance. Walter believes in directors playing a strong oversight role and has worked to ensure that the Credit Union's financial data is not only accurate but is helpful in planning.

Robert Pillartz

Rob joined PSFCU in 2012 as a volunteer for PSFCU's Supervisory Committee, the internal audit arm of the Credit Union. He joined the board of directors several years later, and in March 2018 was honored to be elected President. Rob majored in Computer Science at Columbia University and brings to PSFCU a professional background in labor, health plan operations, and auditing. As a resident of the Penn South Cooperative since 2006, Rob is extremely proud to give back to the greater Penn South community through his efforts at PSFCU.

Gerard Timpano

Gerard has been a PSFCU board member since 1996, filling various roles along the way, most notably as its long-standing Treasurer until 2018. Gerard brings to PSFCU a professional background in accounting, holding a professional certification as a Certified Public Accountant. A Penn South Cooperator since 2017, Gerard is proud to continue to serve the Credit Union as a Vice President and member of the Executive Committee